

Table of Contents

1. The Problem	1
2. The Solution: A Systematic Approach to Error Prevention and Correction	2
3. Multiple Intelligences Theory Applied to the Instructional Cycle	5
4. Multiple Intelligences Theory Applied to Student Performance Tasks	11
5. Chansons
Reproducible Materials for Individual Songs	19
Preparation of Card Games	20
Chanson 1: Veux-tu jouer?	21
Chanson 2: J'ai fini	43
Chanson 3: Celui-ci, celui-là	63
Chanson 4: Je suis allé	83
Chanson 5: Je suis né	103
Chanson 6: Je rends visite	123
Chanson 7: J'ai seize ans	143
Chanson 8: Connais-tu?	163
6. Appendix A: Error Correction - Frequently Asked Questions	183
1. What are the most common and frequent errors in French?	183
2. Why correct?.....	184
3. Why do students make these errors?	184
4. How can I prevent errors?	185
5. How can I correct errors?	185
6. Who should correct errors?	186
7. When should I correct?	187
8. What should I correct?	187
9. What oral correction techniques are used by teachers?	198
10. What oral correction techniques help students self-correct?	199
11. What are peer correction techniques?	191
7. Appendix B: Proficiency Levels and Connections to Curriculum	192

.	Example: Ontario, Canada
8.	Appendix C: Research	197
	1. Brain-Based Learning	197
	2. Multiple Intelligences Theory	198
	3. Constructivism	199
	4. Music and Cognition	200
	5. Second Language Learning	201
9.	Appendix D: High Levels of Musical Production	202
10.	Appendix E: Accommodations for Students	204
11.	Appendix F: Promoting French in the School, Home and Community	213
	1. Special offer - CD purchase	214
	2. 38 ways for parents to motivate their children to succeed in French	215
	3. La semaine du français	217
12.	Appendix G: Sheet Music for Songs	218
13.	Appendix H: Bibliography	232